

Hi!

You don't know me, but I've just paid for your order. No gimmicks - it's just something I felt like doing. I heard about people doing things for others on the radio station 103.9 the Fish. They call it "The Drive Thru Difference". Maybe you'll feel like doing it for someone else!

I hear that the Fish loves to share the stories on the air! Email them at info@1039thefish.com

I hope this encourages you today! :)

Signed,
The stranger in the car ahead of you
